Dear Dr. Toby:

Thank you for your recent letter to Mr. Casey concerning your research into school violence in other countries. Your endeavor is certainly one of wide-spread interest.

CIA, however, is in no position to assist you. We do monitor the press in foreign nations, but the information we derive from that monitoring is not indexed in any way that would enable retrieval of the information you seek. In talking with personnel from our department that handles that, the Foreign Broadcast Information Service I have, however, learned that there are various commercial firms which do index material from various press publications. The name and address of one such firm is as follows:

TRANSDIX
Bell and Howell
Old Mansfield
Wooster, OH 44691

Unfortunately, I have no information on the costs involved in a search performed by this firm or any others.

I hope this will prove helpful to you and wish you all the best as you continue with your research.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
